What is a school-based traineeship?

“Providing career pathways to students and a flexible way of moving from school to the workplace.”

gforce offers school-based traineeships to year 11 and 12 students.

School-based traineeships offer students the option of combining school, paid part-time employment and formal training in order to achieve a nationally recognised qualification and credit towards their VCE or VCAL.

What is Health Services Assistance?

The HLT33115 Certificate III in Health Services Assistance will equip you with the skills to work within the health industry.

This traineeship will prepare trainees to work in various roles in hospitals and aged care facilities.

What will I study?

- Apply first aid
- Contribute to effective workplace relationships
- Transport clients
- Support the care of clients
- Interpret and apply medical terminology
